Dec 29th 1906.

Henry George Esq.
Dearest Sir.

I beg to acknowledge with warm thanks your kind present of the two books -
"Progress and Poverty" and
"The Menace of Privilege".

I am exceedingly interested in reading them, and observe with admiration such freedom and fearlessness in the expression of opinions and also I can get the knowledge of such facts as are entirely unknown to us before.

I must thank you all the more as I go on reading them.

Indeed I should have written to you before, had I not been so busily engaged both in public and domestic affairs, and I believe you will excuse me for the delay if you just think how irregular and unsystematic the states of affairs are here.

I will write you in future something in & near Tientsin and at the same time hope you will let me know something in return.

In the mean time, wishing a happy New Year

I remain

yours very truly

J. Fujii

Please give my best regards to Mr. Sakamine and your friends.
