Re: Neighborhood of 413 South Tenth Street

Dear Mr. Collins:

Yesterday I delved a bit further into records at the Free Library and at the Historical Society (2 hours, total).

The site of our house lay in a confluence of two small streams about midway between a potter's field at 10th and Pine, the poor house at 10th and Spruce and the Pennsylvania Hospital, then largely devoted to lunatics. Not quite Park Avenue!

More should be coming soon. I have xerox of each map.

Regards,

Charles E. Peterson
