Dear Mr. Collins:

Many thanks for the prompt check.

I am in touch with the Society of Architectural Historians and am making plans to show the Birthplace on early Saturday afternoon after their national board meeting, September 13.

At most, there won't be more than a handful but I will try to get up a dope sheet in advance. I hope that Jim Collins can have his drawings up on view.

Regards,

P.S.: I was able to spend only one hour for you last week.

P.S. 2: I have just learned that George F. Smith that owned the Birthplace when HG was born was a famous and wealthy man who gave the money to build the monumental gates to the Centennial Exposition of 1876.
