

HENRY GEORGE,
327 E. 19TH ST., NEW YORK.

Feb. 4, 1894.

My dear Young:

Your notes about Newman were very interesting. as indeed "Notes and Queries" usually are, but I protest against your criticism of the use of kindly, encircling and garish. They are as used fit---I think fittest.

Yours,

Henry George