

X
HENRY GEORGE,
327 E. 19TH ST., NEW YORK.

Sunday, March 19, 1893.

My dear Harry:

We got back last night. I went to Jefferson City. Was received and entertained by Governor Stone and spoke in the Assembly Chamber to a crowded audience. Then to St. Louis where I first lectured (Moses) to a Hebrew Congregation, was dined by a rich man with a number of rich men, spoke on Sunday in the Opera House. Then to Springfield, Ill., where I spoke again in the Assembly Chamber for the Trades and at the Governor's another crowded

Everywhere that Post had been they spoke in the highest terms of his lectures. In St. Louis they were enthusiastic about the speech Tom L. Johnson made there.

Wm. M. Hunt

Yours

Henry George
