

HENRY GEORGE NEWS SERVICE

No. 20 211 W. 79th Street, New York, N.Y., U.S.A., July, 8, 1936

For use without cost subject to conditions enclosed -
Charles Erwood, Editor

SCHOOL TO GO ON THE AIR IN CHICAGO

Chicago, Ill., July 18 (HGNS) -- The first class session of the Henry George School of the Air sponsored by the Chicago Extension of the Henry George School of Social Science will be heard over WCFL from 6:00 to 6:15 this evening. This feature will appear regularly at the same hour each Saturday evening.

Arrangements for the broadcast were made by Nathan Hillman president of the Chicago Chapter of the Henry George Fellowship, through Edward Nockels, secretary of the Chicago Federation of Labor in charge of the radio station.

Each session will be a dramalogue representing a regular class of the School using Progress and Poverty as the textbook.

PITTSBURGH GRADUATES 222

Pittsburgh, Pa., June 30. (HGNS) -- Certificates were issued tonight to 222 graduates of 10 spring classes at the fifth commencement dinner of the Pittsburgh Extension of the Henry George School of Social Science.

The instructors whose students were honored were Charles A. Brinton, city assessor; Robert C. Bowers, city architect; Arthur H. MacFadden, director of public welfare; George Noubauer, magistrate; Hugo Noren, city assessor; Thomas J. Danner, sanitary inspector; Joseph T. Craig, Charles Berndt, and Casmir J. Pelligrini.

Richard E. Howe, extension secretary of the School, presented certificates to the graduates of his class which was held in the Public School of Ingram, Pa.

Speakers at the dinner were Frank Chodorov, New York, and John Lawrence Monroe, field director of the School. Mr. Howe was toastmaster.

The alumni of the Pittsburgh extension now reach a total of 524. The teaching staff of twenty-five includes 19 graduates. Nine summer classes are being conducted.

VETERAN INSTRUCTOR TAKES COURSE

Chicago, Ill., July 8 (HGNS) -- Henry L.T. Tideman, instructor of five classes of the Henry George School of Social Science since the fall of 1934 now joins his graduates in being the possessor of a graduation certificate. He completed the course in the first class of Willis E. Shipley, recent Chicago graduate, which was conducted at the Sears-Roebuck Y.M.C.A.

Mr. Tideman took the course to become eligible for membership in the Henry George Fellowship, alumni body of the School.

TWO BANQUETS MARK CLOSE OF CHICAGO CLASSES

Chicago, Ill., July 8, (HGNS) -- Continuing the parade of successful commencement dinners throughout the nation, banquets were held here on June 17 and tonight in honor of the forty graduates of four classes just brought to a close by Henry L.T. Tideman, Maurice E. Wolty, Willis E. Shipley, and George T. Tideman.

Hon. Wiley Wright Mills, former alderman and Col. Victor A. Rule, Georgist orator and writer were the guest speakers. Sigfried B. Kurzweil was toastmaster on the first occasion, Victor Verby being toastmaster tonight. Both are recent graduates.

HOWE VISITS DETROIT ENROUTE TO YELLOWSTONE PARK

Detroit, Mich., July 13. (HGNS) -- Richard E. Howe, extension secretary of the Henry George School of Social Science at Pittsburgh stopped here today on a vacation trip that will take both himself and Mrs. Howe to Yellowstone Park. He conferred with William J. Palmer extension secretary for Detroit about the work of the School.

COL. RULE ATTACKS COMMUNISM AT FELLOWSHIP MEETING

Chicago, Ill., July 14 (HGNS) -- In an address on "Why the Single Tax is Better than Socialism and Communism" before the monthly meeting of the Chicago Chapter of the Henry George Fellowship tonight, Col. Victor A. Rule said that there is "no need to regulate or segregate the production and distribution of wealth.

"If you have free competition with equal opportunity to use the natural resources", he continued, "even a moron can make all he needs from the earth. There is no need either for charitable institutions nor for treating men as wards of the state."

The program of Henry George is to be preferred to that of either the socialist or communist because it recognizes the right of the individual to himself and to the product of his own labor. Col. Rule said.

Col. Rule is author of the recent book, "Chain the War God."

CHICAGO CHAPTER TO HOLD PICNIC: PLANS EXPANSION

Chicago, Ill., July 14 (HGNS) -- The first annual picnic of the Chicago Chapter of the Henry George Fellowship will be held at Waverly Beach, Indiana Sand Dunes on Saturday, July 25, it was announced today by Miss Loueva Foote, chairman of the social committee, at the chapter's monthly meeting.

J. Edward Jones outlined the purposes and methods of the newly formed expansion committee of which he is chairman. Among the activities will be the preparation of material for newspapers and magazines and the maintaining of a speakers' bureau.

Miss Belle Squire reported progress toward the holding of extension classes of the Henry George School of Social Science in the Y.W.C.A. here.

The report of the chapter's treasurer, J.E. Trulove, showed a balance in the treasury of $174.52.

Col. Victor A. Rule, author of "Chain the War God" was guest speaker. John Lawrence Monroe, field director of the Henry George School of Social Science, and Richard E. Howe, Pittsburgh extension secretary of the School spoke briefly.

Nathan Hillman, president of the chapter, presided.

Chicago, Ill. May 19 (HGNS) After more than a year's activity as a temporary organization, the Chicago Chapter of the Henry George Fellowship adopted a constitution and by-laws at the monthly meeting tonight. Membership was limited to graduates of the Henry George School of Social Science as in all other chapters.