

The New York Times
Times Square

March 4, 1941.

Dear Mrs. De Mille:

Thank you very much for giving us the opportunity to read the enclosed letter from the Right Honorable Josiah C. Wedgwood.

As I told you in our telephone conversation, it is extremely interesting, but I can see nothing advantageous in its publication now.

Very sincerely yours,

Edward A. Lyman.

Mrs. George De Mille,
25 East Ninth Street,
New York, New York.

10094