

The trustees, staff & members of the Henry George School,
Rob't Schalkenbach Foundation
Henry George Institute, and Center for Local Tax Research express their deep sorrow at the passing of School Director,
Philip Finkelstein.

FINKELSTEIN—Philip, beloved husband of Claire, devoted father of Elissa, Jeffrey and Hope, dear brother of Pearl Klein. Executive Director of the Henry George School. Professor at School of Social Work, Adelphi University, former Deputy Mayor, City of New York during Lindsay administration, specialist in land value taxation. Services Monday, 10:45AM at "The Colonial Chapels", of I.J. Morris, Inc., 46 Greenwich St., Hempstead, LI.

FINKELSTEIN—Philip, Professor. The trustees of the Henry George School of Social Science express their deep sorrow at the passing of the Director of their school. His devotion and eloquence will be sorely missed. His passing is a great loss to our students, our movement, our community. He was a friend of Man, an advocate of liberty and justice.

Paul S. Nix, Jr., President

FINKELSTEIN—Philip, Nassau Citizens Budget Committee mourns the untimely loss of one of its most creative and valued Board members.

Rev. Thomas Philipp,
Chairman

Phoebe Goodman, Director

FINKELSTEIN—Philip, Professor. The staff of the Henry George School and the Center for Local Tax Research express their deep sorrow at the passing of their Director.

2-487