

Land Tax Can Cure It. McColl

Quebec, Canada

Quebec, dont l'origine date de 1608, est la seule ville en Amérique du Nord ayant un secteur entouré de murailles. L'on voit ici la Citadelle, la terrasse Dufferin, l'hôtel Château-Frontenac, une partie de la basse-ville et le bateau-passeur de service entre Québec et Lévis.

Québec, Canada

Québec, founded in 1608, is the only city in North America with a walled-in sector. This view shows the Citadel, the Dufferin Terrace, a part of lower town and the Château-Frontenac hotel. In the foreground one of the ferry boats in service between Québec and Lévis.

History- Picture the C.P.R. Hotel and nostalgia pap about Conquest of new France

TRUTH -Gen Wolf's men could not have taken Quebec-if-the people had supported Montcalm THEY DID NOT-They'd had enough of French tax of 50% of all trade. For twenty years the British collected No Taxes-Quebec was with out taxes and became rich- So rich that they would not join the rebellion of colon in 1776- Modern French Canada has forgotten the truth. Suffering from Seigniorial Land tenure- Land Tax can Cu
