

"For the study of political economy you need no special knowledge, no extensive library, no costly laboratory... All that you need is care in reducing complex phenomena to their elements... in applying the simple laws of human action with which you are familiar."

Henry George
Lecture at the Univ. of California

These Nobel Laureate Economists said:

In my opinion the least bad tax is the property tax on the unimproved value of land, the Henry George argument...

Milton Friedman

Reading Progress & Poverty got me started on the study of economics...

Gary S. Becker

Henry George School of Social Science
121 E. 30th St. NYC 10016
212.889.8020 / www.henrygeorge.com

Who Was Henry George?

"The more we examine, the more clearly we may see that public misfortunes and corruptions of government do spring from neglect or contempt of the natural rights of man."

Henry George, Social Problems