75TH

ANNIVERSARY

This is the Diamond Jubilee
Of a book named "Progress and Poverty";
As the years go by its message glows
With a light that ever stronger grows.

There's brilliance in its flaming pen
That points the way for thinking men
To close their ranks and forward march
To victory through freedom's arch.
They ask no gain they have not won,
But full reward for work well done.
Security for all there'll be
With end of land monopoly.
When that day dawns they'll need no sword
Who walk in justice with the Lord.

The absence of a MESSAGE from our President-
A.DAVID JACKSON, is explained by the necessity of a hasty business trip---We wish him
SUCCESS!--We expect him back shortly.
