CONFERENCE

Mr. and Mrs. Gordon Gran have returned from Philadelphia, Pa. where they attended the Twelfth Annual Henry George School Conference. Enroute to the conference they visited the St. Louis School and on the return trip spent three days in New York, visiting Headquarters and seeing the sights. A few hours were also spent visiting with John Monroe at the Chicago School.

The Conference, which was held from July 4th to the 8th at Harcom Junior College, Bryn Mawr, Pa., was declared the "best ever" and drew Georgists from several cities in Canada as well as the U.S.

Departing from past conferences built around school administration problems, the 1956 conference was centered around the theme "Economic Theory and Practice." Attentive audiences listened with respect to new and unfamiliar ideas. Audience participation at question-answer periods following such topics as "Money and Credit" indicated a keen interest in today's economic facts.

Joe Stockman, Philadelphia director, and his assistant Lucia M. Cipollini were the persons responsible for the smooth running of each days program, for assigning rooms to guests, for lining up sight-seeing trips, for doing the thousand and one chores that need doing.

Sightseeing tours and a stage show "Suds In Your Eye" provided the entertainment. A visit to the birthplace of Henry George and to Independence Hall and other points of historical interest occupied visitors on one tour and a trip to Valley Forge highlighted another tour.

A trip to Arden, Delaware ended the "best ever" conference. At Arden, Donald Stephens stirringly told of the Delaware Campaign & the founding of Arden by his father and others. On this inspired note the delegates scattered to their homes already looking forward to next year.

Mr. & Mrs. Charles Adams, Alumni President and Secretary respectively, also attended. They flew both ways reporting thrilling rides. Others from California were: Robert Tideman and Rupert Mason, San Francisco; Caroline Thompson & Glen Hoover, Oakland.

BIRTHDAY CELEBRATION

Plans to commemorate the birthdate of Henry George are now completed. A special gathering will take place at 8:00 p.m. on Tuesday evening, August 28, in the house of Hospitality Auditorium, Balboa Park.

Dr. Jack Thsigh Addington will be the guest speaker. He will present an address titled "Henry George - The Truth Seeker Of Economics." Following the lecture cake and coffee will be served. Be sure and attend and bring a friend.

So far neither Mayor Dail nor Governor Knight have responded to our request that Sept. 2, be proclaimed HENRY GEORGE DAY. If more people would write asking for such a proclamation, both might see fit to comply. It's not too late. Write your letter today!

About a dozen ladies have offered to bake a cake for the occasion. More are needed. Call School headquarters, RM3-0779 if you will help.
