My dear

As I think of you, one of the 500 graduates of the H. G. S. of S. S. founded only three years ago by Oscar H. Deiger, I am conscious of a feeling of fellowship binding this group.

Though we may not all be actually known to each other, we have all shared the inspiration of reading and discussing in groups, the truth within the pages of "Progress and Poverty".

For 70 or so of us those hours were illumined by the insight, wisdom and experience of our great friend and teacher, the founder of the school.

The 250 more recent alumni are such, because of the "splendor of his soul", which had conceived and begun a work so vital that it caused his students and friends to seek to 'carry on' when he passed, a year ago.

Leaders at the school are now intent upon a far larger task even than that of the last year, when 50 Extension classes were established in 14 States.

This new work, embracing an able and devoted group this summer in the planning of a nation-wide campaign - the aim of which is to establish Extension classes in 100 of the leading cities of the country this fall.

This is no idle dream.

The work is well under way.

And help will be needed to do all that lies ahead.

Therein lies our opportunity.

Here is our chance to answer the question - "What are we going to do about it?" which many of us have earnestly asked ourselves as we saw the light where darkness only was before.

Individually we can do little.

As a fraternity, as members of the Henry George Fellowship, working to form other fraternal groups with the Henry George Fellowship is a really great body, whose ballots will count - we can do much!

There is an opportunity for each one of the 500 to help to open wider the doors of this school to other young people all over this country, who are pressing forward to learn the cause of the economic strain and stress everywhere so painfully evident.

Let us respond - every single one of us, in a combined effort, according to his or her ability - by sending a generous Alumni Gift to the school.

Let us remember, too, that

"He gives twice who gives gladly."

Patiently yours,

Helen D. Denbigh,
Pres. H.-A.C.
