SCENIC HOOD CANAL, WASHINGTON

The scenery along this famous waterway is unsurpassed. Salt-water surrounded by the mighty snow-capped Olympic Mountains and verdant forests. A study in contrast where Mountains meet the Sea.

To HGS Staff:
Sure there are sunsets in L.A. But I have not yet seen it.
Have only been out of the hotel once so far. Conference going quite well. Program extremely crowded but exciting. See you on the 28th. Best, George
