

To Bob Rodriguez

We're sorry that you'r leaving,
And cannot help but grieving,
For we're surely going to miss your pleasant smile:
Always glad to lend assistance
You offered no resistance,
But kept your own good nature all the while.

Both at "Friday Nights at 8",
And when teaching, let us state, -
Though undaunted under "Correspondence Lessons",
You rose to the occasion
Without quibble or evasion
And joined in long and late Committee Sessions.

To you, and Peggy, too,
We hate to say "Adieu",
But hope the George Philosophy you'll spread,
Best wishes from the heart,
We give you as we part,
And trust that much good fortune lies ahead.
