 October 19, 1916,

Mr. Alex. MacKendrick, Pres.,
 Massachusetts Single Tax League,
 120 Boylston St., Boston, Mass.

My dear Mr. MacKendrick:

If I send you some of the publications of this League, will you be so kind as to have them distributed at the meeting of the Massachusetts Single Tax League in Springfield, or at least have them placed where members can see them? If you will let me know the number you expect to attend the meeting, together with the address to which the publications should be sent, and the time you desire them to arrive, I will be glad to forward a sufficient number for the use of the convention.

Very sincerely yours,

J. Stillman Wilson

Assistant to the Secretary.
