Mr. Alex. MacKendrick,
Dear Sir,

The enclosed card and circular will explain to you the novel line of professional work which I have taken up. I specialize as poet, composer and singer in the cause of Liberty, Peace, Single Tax and Fraternity, making no charge for my appearance and depending on the sales of my collection of poems and my songs for living and expenses. I am contemplating a trip to Boston in the near future, stopping en route at the principal cities, and write to inquire whether you think arrangements could be made for an audience in Boston at some Hall of sufficient size to hold a good gathering.

As to the quality of my recitals I refer by permission to Dr. John Hagnus Holmes of the Church of the Messiah to Joseph Dana Miller, Editor of the Single Tax Review and others.

I wonder if Mr. Coleman of Ford Hall could be interested in holding a meeting for this purpose?

Yours Sincerely,
Edwards P. Lingersoll.
