Mr. Alexander Mackendrick
120 Boylston St.,
Boston, Mass.

My dear Mr. Mackendrick:-

I want a few copies of the little pamphlet in which the Houston, Texas, experiment is described. If you have them and will send them to me at your earliest convenience, I will try to settle for them when next I see you.

I wish it might be possible to arrange a meeting in Boston some evening, on which occasion Mr. Burke, yourself, and a few others might go somewhere with two or three men from Fall River and eat and talk as long as the spirit so moved. How does this strike you?

Sincerely

F. M. Tadefford
