

F. Mason Fadelord, M. D.
125 June Street, cor. Walnut
Fall River, Mass.

Office Hours:

8 to 9 a.m., 1.30 to 3.30 and 7 to 8 p.m.

November 24, 1915

My dear Mr. Mackendrick:-

The Houston pamphlets arrived in due time. I am greatly obliged for them. I cannot be sure about the date which you suggest (Dec. 4) for our dinner. Will write again in a few days. Saturday is a bad day for my brother as all the stores in town are open on that evening. What other day in the week would suit you and Mr. Burke? If possible we would like some day other than Friday or Saturday.

It is possible that arrangements can be made for Mr. Garrison to address a small gathering of business or professional men in Wolfeboro, N.H., if Mr. Garrison can be prevailed upon to go. A disciple of the True Prophet offers to pay hotel and traveling expenses. This meeting is "up in the air" at present, but my friend wants to know if Mr. Garrison can, or will, go. After finding out, he will see what can be done up in Wolfeboro. Will explain a little more about it when I see you. An early reply will be appreciated.

Sincerely

F. M. Fadelord

10521