Dear Mr Pleydell

I am so sorry to have offended you and the New York Tax Reform Association, according to you, in regarding that institution as a single-tax organization in the list I issued some time ago to various leagues throughout the world.

In supposing the New York Tax Reform Association to be in sympathy with us, I frankly acknowledge that I hid me back in memory to the time when you, and perhaps some others connected with you, had no objection to the accusation; but now I see a list of a score or so of names on your letter-heading which it would be scurrilous for me to suppose represent anybody in sympathy with anything that could, by any stretch of the imagination, be called real tax reform! I heartily beg your pardon!

I have promptly eradicated the name of your Association from my own mind and from all my papers, and will retain only the sweet and tender memories I had of you and some others whom I once imagined were my colleagues.

Ta-ta my Beloved!

Yours very truly
