

HARVARD UNIVERSITY
GRADUATE SCHOOLS OF APPLIED SCIENCE
SCHOOL OF ENGINEERING

LEWIS J. JOHNSON, M. AM. SOC. O.E.
PROFESSOR OF CIVIL ENGINEERING

~~XXXXXXXXXX~~
CAMBRIDGE, MASS.

Harvard, Mass.

July 29, 1915.

Mr. Alexander Mackendrick,
Secy. Mass. Single Tax League,
Room 529, 120 Boylston St.,
Boston, Massachusetts.

Dear Mr. Mackendrick:-

Thank you for your letter of the 28th inst. I agree with you entirely both regarding the manuscript which I left with you on Land Ownership and the Community and on Mr. Miles' article. The former, I hasten to add, was not written by me but by Mr. Charles T. Root, author of "Not a Single Tax." He is a particular friend of Mr. Filletbrown's, a retired president of the United Publishers' Corporation of New York, a highly successful business man whose head is ~~still~~ splendidly clear.

I had already written to Mr. Miles suggesting that his article be edited, offering to do it myself if he desires it. As you say, it certainly is not in shape at present for publication under our auspices.

Cordially yours

Lewis Johnson

LJJ/CIM.

10549