

THE PUBLIC
537 SOUTH DEARBORN STREET
CHICAGO

EDITORS:
STOUGHTON GOOLEY SAMUEL DANZIGER

Chicago, Nov. 8, 1916.

Mr. Alex MacKendrick,

120 Boylston St., Room 529,
Boston, Mass.

Dear Mr. MacKendrick:

Your review of the Haeckel book is in this weeks Public which is now on the press.

Thank you very much for the review of the new Scott Nearing volume.

You're doing splendid work in getting our kind of books reviewed in the Dial. I havn't seen your last two reviews - The Life of Fels and of the History but will try to trace them. I havn't seen the Dial for some time, because in these days of abnormal prices for paper both they and we have been cutting down on exchange copies.

My stenographer is not here to-day and a less experienced girl is taking these notes which wont be transcribed before I leave for New York to make arrangement for our printer down there, but I think you will get the meaning alright if there are any stenographic slips. At this hour nearly 3 o'clock it seems, after all, Wilson has pulled through!

Sincerely yours,

Stanley Bowmar
Publisher.

SE-K.