

THE PUBLIC

A JOURNAL OF DEMOCRACY

ESTABLISHED 1898

122 EAST 37TH STREET

NEW YORK

OFFICE OF THE PUBLISHER

TELEPHONES VANDERBILT 3767
3768

July 16, 1918.

Mrs. Winifred B. Cossette,
The Massachusetts Single Tax League,
120 Boylston Street,
Boston, Mass.

My dear Mrs. Cossette:-

Your check for $1.67 is acknowledged. Sixty-seven cents has been credited on your account in the Book Department, and the $1.00 applied to cover a subscription for Mr. Albert S. Parsons of Lexington, Mass. We are sending to Mr. Parsons, as you request, a copy of "Progress and Poverty".

Thank you for the subscription.

There is a chance that I shall make a trip up to Boston in September to see a few of the publishers from whom we have half promises of advertising. If I do get up I shall make a point of looking up some of the local friends of The Public.

We are determined to carry the propaganda war into as many enemy camps as possible before this year is out. I am hoping to put on not fewer than 10,000 new subscribers. It will take a lot of advertising in one form or another, to do this, but I do hope we can organize a campaign that will be successful to this extent.

Very sincerely yours,

Stanley Bowmar
D R

SB..MR

10242