Mrs. Winifred B. Cossette,
Ass't Sec'y, Mass. Single Tax League,
120 Boylston St.,
Boston, Mass.

Dear Mrs. Cossette:-

Thank you for the new subscription for Mr. Frank P. Cox.

We haven't one copy of the edition of "The Great Iniquity" you want.

We are enclosing some copies of Tom L. Johnson's "Farmers Would Like It".

Have you noticed that we are making a special campaign for subscriptions amongst liberal women who think? We want to confine ourselves to this campaign in April. Please pass the word along to members of your organization and urge them to get subscriptions from women who are leaders in your state.

Your co-operation is greatly appreciated.

Very sincerely yours,

THE PUBLIC,

Stanley Bowman
Publisher.
