Dear Sir:-

In reply to yours of the 6th inst. we will be pleased to publish short letters on the question of Single Tax as often as you care to send them.

We are the only paper in Canada, unfortunately, that is a regular, persistent and insistent advocate of the Single Tax question, and we welcome assistance to this end from any direction. Under separate cover we are sending you sample copies of The Citizen.

With best wishes, we are

Yours very truly,
