My Dear Prof. Johnson,

Accept our sincerest thanks for your hearty greetings which we received and read at our Birthday Meeting Hotel McAlpin.

Erwin Markham read his splendid poem — and also spoke,

James K. Hackett ^{James R. Brown} Monaghan
Moore, Frank McElginn the actor represents of Dr. McGlynn and others also spoke. Miss McDermott, Mayor Tagan, Robert Anderson, Gen Horatio King and our Secretary of War Newton
Baker sent strong letters.

STATUE OF DR. MCGLYNN

"Wherever a human being exists
there is a brother
to be loved"

— Dr. McGlynn

Telegrams from all over came in during the evening. Thanks again for yourself & all friends. I am very sorry we did not read you last evening as we intended.

I have just received copy of your translation
thanks on again

Sincerely,
Frank J. Malone
Pres.
