April, 1929.

TO "LAND & LIBERTY" SUBSCRIBERS, AND FRIENDS.

The General Election.

In the current number of "LAND & LIBERTY" mention is made of leaflets we have now in hand for the General Election campaign. I have pleasure in enclosing herewith copies and write now earnestly to seek your co-operation in an effective distribution of them.

The leaflets (price 4s. 6d. per 1,000 carriage paid) should be brought before your candidate, and his or her election Committee; distributed at public meetings and, where possible, from door to door.

Electors should be urged to put questions on the land value policy to their candidates. One of the leaflets has been specially prepared for this purpose.

The call is for workers, everywhere. But if for any reason you are unable to take part in this field work, we shall be pleased to have your financial contribution to aid in the cost of the undertaking.

Send along now what you can spare for the work of printing and distribution and we will do the rest.

Unemployment is the main issue of the Election. It can be conquered but only along the lines we advocate. It is for you to take advantage of this emergency so to ensure that our part in the debate will be one of genuine and lasting character.

Yours sincerely,

John Paul
