MESSAGE FROM THE SECRETARY

In 1978 I formally retired on pension but continued as Secretary to the United Committee and its subsidiary company, Land & Liberty Press Ltd, in a voluntary capacity. I also continued as Secretary to the Economic and Social Science Research Association.

In December this year, when I shall be seventy, my responsibilities as Company Secretary to the above companies, will be taken over by Mrs. Barbara Sobrielo, who will have sole charge of the office.

So that the transfer of responsibilities would work smoothly, Mrs. Sobrielo, as Secretary-Designate, has taken over day-to-day duties and all communications, unless of a personal nature, should be addressed to her.

During the transition period, although I shall still visit the office, I intend, except for certain business matters, to give my sole attention to specific outstanding tasks, including revision of all literature, reading assignments for the School's courses and related matters. The day-to-day running of the office will be carried out by Barbara Sobrielo.

After December 1981 I shall continue to serve as Principal of the ESSRA School in an honorary capacity. I shall also remain Secretary of the International Union for Land Value Taxation and Free Trade until other decisions are made, although since the routine work of the Union falls upon the United Committee, the required secretarial daily work will be under the supervision of Mrs. Sobrielo.

Mrs. Sobrielo is taking on the running of the office at a time in its history when supporting staff, because of financial difficulties, has never been fewer. She will need and deserve the unstinted support of all the friends of the Movement and I know this will be forthcoming.

V.H. BLUNDELL
