Mr. Alexander Mackendrick:-

Dear Mr. Mackendrick:-

I think I owe you a letter. I have just finished reading your review of Dr. Melvin book in the Dial and want to say how highly I think of it.

By the way, have you anything for the forthcoming Review? I am short of good matter--all periodicals are at all times--and would like to have something from you.

As for the list of Mass. Single Taxers sent me, I have sent letters calling attention to the Five Year Book, to the names ending with C and have heard from only two of the people addressed. I think the reason is that as you say the impression is that such publications tend to multiply too rapidly. But if that is the impression it only shows that I have not yet made clear just what is contemplated. There is no publication of this kind, nor & has one ever been attempted.

I do not know as I shall go on with the list. I shall wait until the work has been published to convert those who will not respond to the appeal. This they will do unless they are poor specimens of Single Taxers, and have but little interest in the subject. There are a lot of that kind.

I enclose a letter from friend Bengough which will please you. Do not trouble to return.

With regards and hoping to hear from you with something for the Review,

Sincerely yours,

Dr. Dana Miller
