Dear Barbara,

Please convey my regrets for not being able to attend the Executive Committee meeting on 28 February.

Re nominations: we have a pretty good list of Committee members, and I support their re-nominations in general. In particular, I would like to nominate our two "co-opted" members, Michael Horsman of Ireland and Craig Cringan of Canada, for the Executive Committee. And I am willing and happy to be re-nominated to serve, and am willing to serve, on the Executive Committee. Also, I support the re-election of our current officers. (If any of our officers choose not to serve another term, I ask Dick Noyes, provided he himself is willing to serve another term, to cast my proxy votes in this matter.)

With this letter comes best wishes to you, Jose, and all the other Executive Committee members at the meeting. Also, best wishes for a successful conference in March. Enclosed is a copy of the publicity I gave the conference in the Henry George Newsletter. Please make this available to the Executive at the February meeting. Thank you.

Sincerely,

Mark Sullivan

STANDING ORDERS FOR CONFERENCE SESSIONS

1. One Chairperson shall preside for a whole day's sessions and will be responsible for starting the meetings on time and for the conduct of the meetings throughout the day.
2. The Chairperson's introduction of the speakers should last no more than two minutes.
3. Invited speakers should be given a courteous hearing.
4. Speakers should answer questions briefly and not start off on another speech.
5. Members of the audience asking questions of the speaker must announce their names before putting their question. No person should speak more than once while others are waiting to speak, unless invited to do so by the Chairperson.

GENERAL NOTES:

- * Latecomers shall stand at the entrance while someone is speaking.
- * No one shall interrupt the Chairperson unless on a point of order.
- * The Chairperson's word is final.

The foregoing are the Standing Orders for International Union Business Meetings and for International Union Conference Sessions. A motion in respect of each is on the Agenda of the International Union Executive meeting called for 28 February 1991 at 1.30 p.m. and notice of which was sent on the 17th January.

Members are reminded that they may appoint proxies. Likely attenders at the meeting are Miss J.Baker, Mr V.H.Blundell, Mr F.Harrison, Miss J.Bastian, Mrs D.Norris, Mrs J.Mernane and Mrs B.Sobrielo.

The next meeting of the Executive (after 28th February) will be on Thursday, March 21st, during the afternoon, at Wellington Hall, Vincent Square, London SW1. The time of this meeting will be posted up at Wellington Hall and delegates who are members of the Executive are asked please to acquaint themselves with the time and location of room after they have registered. The purpose of the meeting on March 21st is simply to clear any points which may have arisen in respect of the Conference and to take any matters arising from the meeting of the 28th February.

STANDING ORDERS FOR INTERNATIONAL UNION

BUSINESS MEETINGS

- GENERAL: Delegates are requested to be punctual and not to look for seats or move about while anyone is speaking.
1. No motion can be considered if it has not previously been submitted to the General Secretary in writing.
 2. Amendments must be submitted to the Chairperson in writing, with the name of the proposer and seconder, no later than 24 hours before the meeting is to be held. Any such amendments will be displayed on the Conference notice board for at least four hours before the commencement of the meeting.
 3.
 - a) The proposer of a motion may speak to his motion for not more than five minutes.
 - b) The seconder may speak for not more than three minutes.
 - c) No other member may speak for more than three minutes and no one may speak more than once on any motion or amendment, except the Mover. Each speaker must preface his remark by saying whether he is FOR or AGAINST the motion.
 - d) The Mover of an amendment (see 2 above) may speak for no more than three minutes.
 4. Members wishing to speak should raise their hands during the meeting. The Chairperson will make a list of those wishing to speak and will call them in the list order. The Chairperson will inform the meeting from time to time of the names of those still waiting to speak. Before speaking members should state their names.
 5. The Chairperson's ruling on matters of procedure is final.
