Dear Howard,

Thanks for your letter of 10/30. There is so much packed into it, as well as into the accompanying PUBLIC PRESS, that I won't begin to comment on. But I wonder if someone else - not someone like myself who agrees with much of your message - might not be discouraged from reading your material because it is too concentrated. Each issue of PUBLIC PRESS, it seems to me, could be developed into a book - if each idea proposed were developed. Perhaps it would be better to develop one or two ideas per issue, rather than throw them all out at the reader. In any case, keep 'em coming!

Best wishes for the upcoming holidays,

MAS Mark
